Policy Statement

Consultation on X-ray examination made elsewhere is not billable as a separate service by the treating health care provider. The relative work value of the E/M service includes the value for reviewing medical records and diagnostic studies. One of the "key components" of the elements of medical decision-making includes the amount and complexity of the data.

Purpose

Description

CPT Code 76140 is a service code that is typically utilized by a radiologist or other consultant to reflect an outside second opinion (consultation) on a radiographic study with a written report.

When a patient presents with diagnostic studies from an outside facility, the treating health care provider may review them and write a report of the findings. However, this would not be billed as 76140. Further, this code is not intended to be used by providers within the same facility to reread radiographs.

This code is reported when one provider asks a second provider in a different facility to provide advice and/or opinion on an imaging study. The second provider interprets the studies and provides a written report. The consulting provider does not actually see the patient.

Coding

Note: The Current Procedural Terminology (CPT) codes listed in this policy may not be all inclusive and are for reference purposes only. The listing of a service code in this policy does not imply that the service described by the code is a covered or non-covered health service. Coverage is determined by the member's benefit document.
